This ninety-minute CLE is designed to introduce lawyers of all experience levels and practice areas to artificial intelligence, with an emphasis on ChatGPT and ChatSonic. The panel will introduce attendees to large language models (LLMs) in general and show how LLMs can be used in the practice of law. The panel will discuss specific prompts which are tailored for the practice of law; various other LLMs; a discussion of limitations and privacy concerns; as well as tips and tricks for using AI as well as recommended sites, software, and add-ons to Word and email programs.

1. Introduction to AI/large language models, specifically ChatGPT and ChatSonic
2. Basic prompts and introduction to “Chat” AI
3. How to use “Chat AI” in your practice (with specific prompts and examples you can use now)
4. Limitations and privacy risks
5. Tips and tricks of Chat AI platforms; recommended sites, software, and “add-ons” for Microsoft Word and email programs
